Warning Letter Re: FPPC No. 11/670, FloatingAirport.org; Victoria Englund, Treasurer

Dear Ms. Englund:

The Fair Political Practices Commission (the "FPPC") enforces the provisions of the Political Reform Act (the "Act"),<sup>1</sup> found in Government Code section 81000, et seq. This letter is in response to a referral from the San Diego County Registrar of Voters that alleged that you failed to file your committee's semiannual campaign disclosure statements.

The FPPC has completed its investigation of the facts in this case. Specifically, the FPPC found that FloatingAirport.org failed to file semiannual campaign statements for the periods of July 1, 2010 through December 31, 2010 and January 1, 2011 through June 30, 2011.

Section 84200 of the Act provides that elected officers, candidates, and committees shall file semiannual campaign statements. In addition to the campaign statements required by Section 84200, elected officers, candidates, and committees shall file pre-election statements as specified in Section 84200.5 by the deadlines set down in Section 84200.7.

Your actions violated the Act because you failed to file the aforementioned campaign statements by the specified deadlines. However, since your committee does not have an enforcement history, and you have since filed with the California Secretary of State to terminate your committee as of July 1, 2011, we are closing your case with this warning letter. The information in this matter will be retained and may be considered should an enforcement action become necessary based on newly discovered information or future conduct. Failure to comply with the provisions of the Act in the future will result in monetary penalties of up to $5,000 for each violation.

Although the FPPC is not seeking a penalty in the current matter, you are still required to immediately file any further or remaining outstanding statements with the San Diego County

A warning letter is an FPPC case resolution without administrative prosecution or fine. However, the warning letter resolution does not provide you with the opportunity for a probable cause hearing or hearing before an Administrative Law Judge or the Fair Political Practices Commission. If you wish to avail yourself of these proceedings by requesting that your case proceed with prosecution rather than a warning, please notify us within ten (10) days from the date of this letter. Upon this notification, the FPPC will rescind this warning letter and proceed with administrative prosecution of this case. If we do not receive such notification, this warning letter will be posted on the FPPC's website ten (10) days from the date of this letter.

The FPPC publishes forms and manuals to facilitate compliance with the provisions of the Act.
